

Good Night, Gorilla Activity Card

Dear Families - Young children learn a lot about reading by watching other people read to them. To play this game with your child, first cut the pictures from the bottom of this page. Paste them on top of the outlined word they describe. Then, with your child "reading" the pictures, read this summary of Good Night, Gorilla.

First, the gorilla took the keys from the zookeeper and let himself out of his cage. (And, of course, his little friend the mouse went with him!) Next, he let the elephant out of his cage. Then, he let the lion out of his cage. After he let the hyena out of its cage, he opened the door for the giraffe. Finally, he let the armadillo out of his enclosure. Then, the gorilla (and his friend the mouse) and the elephant and the lion and the hyena and the giraffe and the armadillo all followed the zookeeper to his house!
