

The Jacket I Wear in the Snow Activity Card

Dear Families - Young children are working hard at learning to dress themselves, but like the child in this book they often have difficulties with their clothing. To play this game with your child, cut out the pictures at the bottom of this page. Next, read the descriptions of the clothing problems in the different boxes. Then, paste the pictures in the boxes where they belong. Finally, you and your child can talk about how children get better and better at dressing themselves!

This is woolly, red, and caught in the zipper.	This is stuck on the jacket.
This matches the scarf and goes on the head.	These hang from each arm.
This is itchy and warm and meets the mittens.	These go under the sweater and are stiff in the knee.
These cover the pants but are too big.	This is bunched and hot and gets stuffed in the boots.
These are wrinkled a lot and get pulled over the long underwear.	This is what we wear to keep warm, but its zipper can get stuck!
