

Where the Wild Things Are Activity Card

Dear Families - Reading books often gives us an opportunity to help our children deal with fears they have. Many children are afraid of monsters, but not Max! He tames his monsters with his trick of staring into their yellow eyes. In the box below, help your child draw a monster with yellow eyes and terrible teeth. Then, let your child pretend to be Max, and tame the monster!

